War in Europe Makes Impossible Exportation and Sale of Mexican Staple.

is a 1-2 to 3 cents, and this figure simply represents a quotation that would probably not stand under any heavy receipts of cotton. One large dealer here shipped 15.900 bales to Europe on July 27, two days before the declaration of war on Servia by Austria. The whole shipment has been returned and is now on the docks at Galveston. All of the Texas ports are reported as glutted with the staple.

A serious aspect of the Torreon cotton situation is the fact that the new crop is just coming on and if sales cannot be made, hundreds of acres will probably be left unsown for maxt year.
